In the square of the Abadía de Montserrat, Barcelona, Leman benches from Benito Urban's new DESIGN+ collection have been installed. These benches not only enhance the tourists' experience during their visit by providing a comfortable place to rest and enjoy the historical and natural surroundings of Montserrat, but they also stand out for their neutral and adaptable aesthetics.
Their ergonomic design and resilient materials perfectly complement the plaza's environment, making them ideal for any urban project. This initiative reflects Benito Urban's commitment to improving accessibility and the tourist experience in Montserrat, promoting a welcoming and functional environment for all visitors to this iconic site in Barcelona.
