

Citizen benches and chairs made of wood and cast iron installed in a square in the historic centre of Florence.

Citizen
UM301

The constant improvement and evolution of our products may result in some modifications of the technical specifications and characteristics of the products without prior notice.